

The IPRC:

Supporting Your Child's Special Education Needs

Presented by:

Lamar Mason

This presentation will help you understand the IPRC and how it can support your child's rights and access to the special education resources required to succeed.

Woodroffe High School

2410 Georgina Drive, Ottawa

Saturday April 9th, 2011

10:00 A.M. –12:30 P.M.

On-site babysitting is available for parents with young children on registration to ocasc.seac@ocasc.ca

This free event is brought to you by OCASC

The Ottawa Carleton Assembly of School Councils is an umbrella organization for school councils across the Ottawa Carleton District School Board. OCASC works collaboratively with school councils and the board in its efforts to share information, facilitate communication and represent its membership. Learn more about OCASC at ocasc.ca

Lamar Mason is a past SEAC Chair and long time Special Education advocate. Lamar has come to know Special Education rights and process. Lamar has also been a tremendous resource to parents around the region with her many presentations on various aspects of Special Education and her ability to make it easily understood.